

Taking away the traffic reports from XM Radio is ridiculous. Their reports are more comprehensive, helpful, and timely than on the regular local radio stations. As a truck driver it is helpful knowing I have immediate traffic and weather reports for a city that I am in or am going to so that I may be fully prepared.

Taking away this wonderful service would be a great disservice.